

Second-Semester (and Second-Semester Intensive) Czech

"By the far the best language course I've had, and I've studied several languages."

"Wonderful course. David goes out of his way to make learning interesting and to educate us about Czech culture and history as much as possible. He's also very patient."

"It's about 100 times better than other language courses I've taken."

"The teaching was excellent. David shows a lot of enthusiasm for teaching the subject. He's one of the best teachers I've had here at UW. He really encouraged creativity."

"I feel that I've greatly improved in my use of the language and that the professor and his teaching style contributed most to my improvement."

"Excellent course! David is one of the best instructors I've ever had."

"David has a gift for connecting with students."

"I didn't want to miss any of the classes!"

"The textbook was at times strange, but David's supplementary materials made everything clear."

"His handouts are made with loving care."

"This was my hardest beginning/intro language course, but Prof. Danaher was also by far the best teacher."

"This is one of the best intro language courses I've taken."

"David is one of the best teachers/professors I've had. His energy and enthusiasm make the class time fly by."

"Prof. Danaher is the absolute best language instructor I've ever had. His constant enthusiasm and good nature makes coming to class enjoyable even on cold, winter days."

"The best professor I've had. An excellent teacher in every sense."

"He is amazing. He is energetic and by far the best professor I've ever had."

"The best class I've taken so far."

"I've taken Spanish before, but this is so much better."

"It's one of the best language courses I've taken."

"It is a great course."

"Way to go, Prof. Danaher! The UW should be doing more to retain instructors like David."
